

Awareness and Inclusion Calendar 2022/23

Dr Philippa Lloyd
Vice-Principal (Policy and Strategic Partnerships)

I am enormously proud to introduce Queen Mary's first annual Awareness and Inclusion Calendar. This calendar draws together key dates important to our vibrant and multicultural community throughout the academic year 2022/23.

Citizenship and inclusion are the very fabric of our University and are vital to our success in education and research. The Awareness and Inclusion Calendar reflects and honours this diversity, and helps us each appreciate our differences and what we have in common. Each of the dates captured in our calendar are an opportunity for us to learn more about each other, and to share in celebrations and events significant to each of us.

I'd like to thank our staff, students and community for creating such a colourful programme of events and activity for our University to recognise; I look forward to marking these events together over the academic year 2022/23.
