

EUWHO

WHO Simulation Youth Initiative

"Population and reproductive health: Addressing the unmet need"

Friday 26 – Sunday 28 October 2012

Venue: Royal Society of Medicine, London

Are you already passionate about global health or just keen to learn more about it? Join other students and junior professionals at EuWHO, a simulation of a WHO World Health Assembly.

The event is an opportunity to:

- Contribute to a written declaration that will be submitted to WHO in Geneva
- Develop your public speaking
- Discuss key issues in global health
- Network with peers

Early bird rates:

Early bird rates expire on 26 September 2012

RSM Member £30

Non Member £50

The Royal Society of Medicine
In association with the Royal Society of Tropical Medicine & Hygiene

For more information or to book your place visit

www.rsm.ac.uk/euwho

email: students@rsm.ac.uk tel: (0) 20 7290 3846

