

C4 COVID Collective for Critical Conversations

A collective of alumni, students, academics and the public engaging in discussions about key questions posed by COVID.

Join an 8 week seminar series starting September 30. Bring your stories and ideas to engage in change!

September 30: What just happened?

Making sense of COVID, BLM and an upset world

October 7: Just wear a mask!

Health promotion and behaviour change

October 14: The Great Revelation

Social and Structural Determinants

October 21: Why are we at war?

Military metaphors and what do they for and against public health

October 28: Bill Gates controls the world

Conspiracy theories, anti-science and "fake" news

November 11: Bats, Cats, Pigs and Pangolins

Food systems as spillover spaces, sustainable systems and superspreaders

November 18: Risk is MY business

Harm reduction in everyday living

November 25: Now what?

Conclusions and next steps

Register below for one or all seminars starting Wednesday
September 30 @ 15:00 London time.

All welcome!!

Any questions please contact Jennifer.Randall@gmul.ac.uk

<https://us02web.zoom.us/join/register/tZUuc-GhpjMiHdPqXOlniMX7LzrimxHvMyLr>

REGISTER TODAY!

