

V901 Liberal Arts

V903 Liberal Arts with a Year Abroad

These regulations are intended for students who commenced their programme of study in September 2023. Students who commenced their programme of study in previous academic years should consult the previous versions of the programme regulations.

Liberal Arts is an interdisciplinary degree programme where you can select modules from a total of 6 schools; the School of Languages, Linguistics and Film together with the School of English and Drama, the School of Politics and International Relations, the School of Geography, the School of History and the School of Economics and Finance.

It is important to note that assessment patterns and processes may vary across each school and whatever school you are taking modules from please ensure to reach out for appropriate support from that school.

Overall programme structure and requirements, levels and modules.

You must take 120 credits in each year of study, including the Year Abroad where this is seen as an integral part of the degree programme. You must meet all programme and pathway requirements, and will only be able to progress to the next developmental year if you have met the progression requirements.

It is advised that you select 60 credits of modules in your first semester and 60 credits in your second.

YEAR 1

- 30 credit compulsory module SML4006 Culture and Language
- 30 credits compulsory Language module: Student may select any ONE of the L1 or L2 entry-level Modern Language modules offered in MLC (current choice is between French, Russian, German, Spanish, Portuguese and Chinese)
- 15 credits at Level 4 from the Global Cultures theme
- 15 credits at Level 4 from the Interactions: Societies and Cities theme
- 15 credits at Level 4 from the Language and Culture theme
- 15 credits at Level 4 from the Discovery Module List

PROGRESSION REQUIREMENTS TO YEAR 2:

To successfully progress from Year 1 to Year 2 you must pass a minimum of 90 credits and achieve an average mark of 40.0 or higher across all the credits you have taken.

SELECTION OF MAJOR/MINOR THEME:

In February of your first year you will select your major theme and your minor theme in a meeting with your Advisor. These theme selections will impact your choice of modules throughout the remainder of your degree.

If you select 'Language and Culture' as either a major or a minor theme you will be placed onto a 4 year degree programme and your third year will be placed abroad.

If you select either the major/minor combination for 'Global Cultures' AND 'Interactions: Societies and Cities' you will have the option to be on a 3-year degree programme, select a standard study abroad OR undertake a Year in Industry.

If you would like to change your combination of major and minor themes after the start of year 2 you would have to meet the progression requirements of your potential new theme combination. Following advice and discussion this request is subject to approval by the academic lead for Liberal Arts.
