

FRESHFIELDS

International Arbitration Group

Internship – Paris office

We are accepting applications for internships in the Paris office for a duration of six months starting in January 2026.

We welcome applications from outstanding undergraduate and postgraduate students in law, as well as those who have already graduated. English is the only language of which mastery is a prerequisite, although fluency in other languages, especially Arabic, French, German, Mandarin, Portuguese, Russian or Spanish, would be an advantage.

An internship in Freshfields' International Arbitration Group would expose you to a wide range of cross-border work, including some of the most complex and interesting international disputes currently subject to arbitration.

With most of our current lawyers having started their careers as interns in our practice, the Freshfields internship is our preferred method of recruiting junior associates within our team.

To apply, please submit an updated résumé with your academic achievements including honours and a summary of grades, neither exceeding one page in length before Friday 21 February 2025.

Please submit your application via our recruitment website at:
