

Module Registration Guidance for First Year Students of French and Politics – 2024-25

Welcome to the School of the Arts (STA), here at Queen Mary University of London.

As a new first year student of French and Politics you now need to choose 30 credits of POL-coded Politics modules.

All students must take 120 credits (including your core/compulsory modules), over two semesters (Semester A: September – December and Semester B: January – April).

General Guidance

- The School of Politics and International Relations requires you to choose 30 credits of Politics (POL-coded) modules. Please follow any instructions you receive directly from them, regarding how to complete module registration.
- All of your French modules are core/compulsory and so you do not have any further choices to make with STA.

Your Modules

As a first year student, you are required to take the following core/compulsory module(s):

- Depending on your language level, you will be placed onto ONE of the following:
