Message from the President and Principal

Thank you for your interest in this role and in Queen Mary University of London. Working at Queen Mary means being part of a unique, world-class global University with a long, proud and distinctive history.

Our founding institutions, the London Hospital Medical College, St Bartholomew's Medical College, Westfield College and Queen Mary College, were founded to provide hope and opportunity for the less privileged and otherwise under-represented.

Today, we remain true to the vision of our founders by continuing to improve lives locally, nationally and internationally through the seamless combination of our world-leading strengths in education and research.

The Queen Mary community – our staff, students and alumni – is the heart and soul of our University. We are proud to provide an inclusive and nurturing environment so that staff and students from all backgrounds can develop, flourish and achieve their full potential.

I look forward to welcoming you to our unique University and working with you to realise our ambitions.

Professor Colin Bailey, President and Principal

Our strategy 2030

In 2019, Queen Mary University of London launched a bold new Strategy with the vision to open the doors of opportunity. By 2030, we will be the most inclusive university of its kind, anywhere. We are doing this by building on our existing cultural diversity to create a truly inclusive environment, where students and staff flourish, reach their full potential and are proud to be part of the University. Continuing our long tradition of commitment to public good, we will generate new knowledge, challenge existing knowledge, and engage locally, nationally and internationally to create a better world.

We have five core values that will help us to reach this goal:

We are inclusive, supporting talented students and staff regardless of their background, and engaging with our local and global communities.

We are proud of the difference we can all make when we work collectively.

We are ambitious, fostering innovation and creativity, disrupting conventional thought, and responding with imagination to new opportunities.

We are collegial, promoting a strong community through openness, listening, understanding, co-operation and co-creation.

We are ethical, acting with the highest standards, and with integrity, in all that we do.

To enable our staff to flourish and to reach their full potential throughout their employment at Queen Mary, we offer a range of benefits:

Job description

Job context

The School of Business and Management (SBM) is looking to recruit undergraduate, postgraduate and PhD students to help with events, marketing and various other roles (In accordance with the guidelines of the Government and Queen Mary University of London).

These events will allow guests to attend diverse events, encourage enquirers to consider higher education and apply to the School of Business & Management at Queen Mary University of London.

Other roles include content creation for SBM's Social Media platforms.

The SBM Student Ambassadors will represent the school, act as role models and motivators to engage, answer questions and share their experiences through:

- In- Person events (On and off campus)
- The School Marketing
- Administrative Support
- Social Media promotions
- Campus Tours
- Academic Support

The nature of this role means the post holder may be required to work evenings and weekends with a flexible approach to working during unsociable hours if needed.

Job purpose

SBM Student Ambassadors work on a range of duties, assisting the Marketing team with the planning and delivery of Student Recruitment and Widening Participation activities in a variety of settings, including on-campus, in schools and colleges or community settings. These can also be in an online setting as appropriate. Student Ambassadors will also be asked to support the planning and delivery of student socials and other academic events/activities throughout the year as needed.

SBM Student ambassadors will have excellent knowledge of higher education, strong public speaking skills and a high level of professionalism.

Within these settings, Student Ambassadors have a high level of responsibility and will receive training to support them to undertake a range of duties including, but not limited to:

- Supporting University staff in the organisation and delivery of events
- Assisting with the evaluation of activities
- Acting as a conduit between the broader Student Ambassador workforce

Main duties and responsibilities

- Participate in online and in-person events such as, but not limited to: conferences, lectures, subject webinars, social events, fairs, recruitment and careers events.
- Participate in the school visits, to promote the school and the programs.
- Create and deliver presentations to a wide range of audiences.
- Respond to enquirers using chat platforms.
- Facilitate social-media campaigns such as Facebook live, Instagram questions/live/takeover and produce Snapchat content (subject to school instructions and specifications).
- Look after the SBM Events Instagram platform by creating content and posting
- Attend any Student Ambassador training sessions arranged by the SBM Events Officer or Marketing team
- Brand Ambassador for the School of Business and Management.
- Write content for marketing collateral.
- Ad hoc tasks as required.

Benefits of the role

- Enhance your presentation and communication skills
- Develop your public speaking skills
- Gain insight into digital marketing and content creation
- Experience in event planning and delivery
- Good pay rate of £14.52 per hour (QM is a Living Wage Employer)
- Potential source of employment reference – valuable when you are applying for jobs (subject to the number of events you participate in)

The above list of responsibilities is not exhaustive and the jobholder may be required to undertake other duties commensurate with the level of the role, as reasonably requested by their line manager.

This job description accurately reflects the duties and responsibilities of the role at the time the job description was written. These duties and responsibilities may change over time without significantly impacting on the character of the role, the overall level of responsibility, or its grade.

Depending on strategic or operational needs, the jobholder may in the future be required to work for another existing or new organisational unit and/or at a different site within Queen Mary. This may be on a temporary or indefinite basis and may involve a change in line management and / or regularly working at more than one site.
